8. Teacher's Report

Mrs. Vail -PBIS Update:

1. Our first monthly PROUD Reward is happening tomorrow (Wednesday, September 27th). This is a classroom or grade level reward, so each class or grade level can choose something different to do.

2. Students continue to earn eggs for their classroom nests and continue to earn Dojo points. Parent volunteers within the building can award students or classes Dojo points/eggs if you notice students or classes demonstrating PROUD behavior. If you notice a student or students doing something that shows PROUD (perseverance, respect, ownership, unity, dedication to learning), you can tell their teacher what they did and then tell their teacher to give them a Dojo Point. If you are volunteering and see a whole class doing something that shows PROUD, you can let their teacher know what they did and that they deserve an egg.

3. The PBIS Committee is looking for feedback from parents/families about PROUD and PBIS. What kind of information would parents want to know that could be shared in a newsletter? The committee is looking for ideas to engage parents and answer questions or provide information that would be helpful to them at home regarding PROUD. If you have any thoughts or suggestions, please share them with the PTO or Mrs. Vail (jvail@doversd.org).
